

SOCIETY WOMAN'S WORLD AND WORK

LILIAN CRAWFORD PERKINS

TO A CRITIC.
Hold this sea shell to your ear
And you shall hear
Not the sounds of the sea;
Not the wild wind's symphony,
But your own heart's minstrelsy.

You do poets and their songs
A great wrong.
It is your own heart does not bring
To their deep imagining
As much beauty as they sing.
—Autograph.

Walter-Ziegler.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized Sunday, June 15, at 6:30 o'clock when Miss Grace Ziegler of Newkirk, Okla., and Mr. Alvin J. Waller of Altamont, Kan., were united in marriage at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Frank Waller, 305 East Twentieth street. Rev. J. W. Abel of the Bunker Avenue Methodist church officiated. Only relatives and a few intimate friends were present. After the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served.

The bride is known and loved by a wide circle of friends both in Tulsa and elsewhere. Her home, while the groom's, has not yet been returned from a year's service with the A. E. F. in France, is well known in educational circles in Kansas and Oklahoma, and is a thoroughly upright and ambitious young man.

At a late hour the happy couple left via Santa Fe for Kansas City and points north, and sometime after will be seen again sailing for Chile, South America, where the groom will for the next few years engage in musical instruction in connection with one of the colleges of that country.

Evening Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Chan T. Laughter will entertain parents and friends of their three children Friday, June 28, with an evening of music given by members of the orchestra.

The program will be:

March—Royal Guards.

Hungarian dance—Orchestra.

Cornet—Emore Polka—Denn Roberts.

Violin—Fifth Air Varie, Daniel—Jack Childs.

Clarinet—Ye Braes and Banks of Bonnie Doon—Lynn Barrett.

Cello—Melody in E. Rubenstein—W. R. Tippen.

Coffeef—Grand Commandery March—Earl Miller.

Clarinet—Long, Long Ago Variations—Ethelyn Williams.

Violin—Sixth Air Varie, Daniel—Darwin Childs.

Harp Solo—Melody, Parkhurst—Jessie Lee Twist.

Narcissus, Neviv.

Till We Meet Again—Orchestra.

Opening of "Y. W. Pool."

All society was at Thursday morning's meeting attending the formal opening of the magnificent swimming pool in the new Y. W. C. A. The rails around the pool were lined with people looking on and the pool was a wonderful scene of activity. There were real swimmers there and there were those who were just learning. Mrs. Willis Webber, the instructor, who is the busiest person here, was advanced and received much attention from the onlookers. No doubt this delightful place will receive the homage of all those eligible during the hot days of the summer.

Reissaus-Gammie.

The many friends of Miss Jessie Gammie of Chaffee, Mo., formerly of Tulsa, will be interested to know that she was married on Thursday at noon to Mr. Charles Paul Reissaus of Chaffee, Mo. Mr. and Mrs. Reissaus left for Tulsa next Sunday, when they will be the guests of Col. and Mrs. W. H. Peck at their home on North Denver avenue. During their two weeks' visit here, Mrs. Peck will entertain one afternoon informally for Mrs. Reissaus. The bride will be given an opportunity of meeting her again after her four years' absence.

Dancing Party.

Miss Eva Todd, who left this week for her home in Cleveland, Ohio, after a delightful visit here to Mrs. E. L. Cohenour, was complimented on Wednesday evening with a dance in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hayner on Swan Drive.

Children's Auxiliary Meets.

Miss Delta B. Crowder will entertain the Robert E. Lee chapter, Children of the Confederacy, tonight in her home, which events gives promise of much pleasure.

Luncheon.

Mrs. C. C. Cole will entertain informally today at luncheon for Mrs. William Deatherage of Dallas, who is visiting her.

Friday's Events.

Informal dance in Country club for Mr. and Mrs. Don G. Roy, Mr. and Mrs. John Roy hosts.

Mrs. C. C. Cole's luncheon for Mrs. William Deatherage of Dallas.

CASE IS DISMISSED BUT STILL IN JAIL

O. O. Lyons Starts Habeas Corpus Proceedings to Get Away From Federal Officers; Gets Hearing.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Andras arrived Wednesday. The marriage recently of Miss Helen Ardizzone of this city to Mr. Andras, which took place in New York at the Little Church Around the Corner, was of much interest. The bride, however, had a week's vacation in Baden before her sister, Mrs. Ardizzone, who accompanied east for the marriage, is now visiting her mother, Mrs. T. J. Landberg, in Bradford, Pa.

Miss Lannie Martin will entertain a group of girl friends on Sunday afternoon, accompanied by Miss Glenn Farms, who with her parents are at Hotel Tulsa for several days, until they leave for Lake Superior. During this intervening days before Miss Farms' departure, members of the Oklahoma club will compliment Miss Farms.

Miss Mary M. Shedd will leave Tulsa on June 27 for New York and Terreyton and later will go to St. Louis and Chicago. Miss Shedd will engage in music instruction while away and will be accompanied by some of her pupils.

Mr. John K. Finlayson, Jr., and young son have arrived from a visit in Moberly, West Virginia, and were accompanied home by Miss Finlayson's mother, Mrs. G. H. Finlayson, who will visit her daughter for several weeks.

Misses Della and Gladys Reward of Pasadena will arrive today to visit Miss Dixie Holmgren and will be honor guests at her day school on Saturday evening. Miss Holmgren will also give a theatre party in their honor.

Miss Chandler will give the group of readings today at the meeting of Queen Esther Circle, and the report of the late Y. W. C. A. conference will be given by Miss Pauline Woods.

Miss Flo North leaves Friday for New York, where she will spend the summer studying music. Miss Helen North, who has been attending Chicago university, will return Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Griffin and daughters, Misses Dorothy and Jerry, will leave Sunday for San Francisco, where they will sail for Honolulu and will later tour Japan.

Miss Helen Delaney has arrived to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Delaney, after a year spent at Notre Dame, at South Bend, Ind.

Miss F. M. Hawthorne and daughter, Miss Elizabeth Hawthorne, are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. S. Shadé, at 1603 South Denver avenue.

The Rebecca club will hold its last meeting of the season this Friday afternoon in the home of Mr. T. W. Paddox, 1626 East Second street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Stahl and little daughter Winifred will leave soon to spend the month of July at Glacier Park.

Miss Louise Slater of Dallas will arrive Monday to visit Miss Marjorie Welch, 820 East Twentieth street.

Mrs. Eurella Hayner of Dayton, Ohio, is visiting in the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. M. Hayner.

Mrs. Hal Rambo leaves Saturday for Denver to spend the summer with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hamel left last night for Chicago for a ten days' visit.

Miss Amelia Broach's line party for Miss Ruby Thompson.

Akaka Kama dance at Crystal park.

Mary M. Shedd's business transactions are completed and she will leave Tulsa for New York Thursday June 27. On September 15 she will open a school of voice culture at Tarrytown-on-the-Hudson. A part of the summer will be spent among pupils in St. Louis and Chicago. Pupils who have arranged for a career will accompany Miss Shedd en route to New York. Adv.

Robert A. McIlroy
Funeral Director. Phone 456-191.
912 South Main—Adv.

The Weaker Sex.

"Man is weak," declared Mrs. Flushing. "Isn't he? John—"

"Really, my dear, I hardly—"

"Is he or is he not?"

"He is."

I'm for Spavinaw
DR. T. A. PENNY

LOOK! LOOK!
Special for Hot Summer Months
WEEKLY BOARD $6.50 PER WEEK

Martha Washington Cafe
LaSalle Hotel, 415 South Denver
STRICTLY HOME-COOKING

To Remove First Signs of Old Age

"The infinitesimal signs of age are the sagging cheek muscles," says Miss Cavailler, whose face is a beauty culturist. It is scarcely less than that of a gorgess. These are more difficult and serious to treat than wrinkles, she claims. The sagging muscles, however, they have grown too weak to remain in place; they must be assisted, strengthened."

The best way to strengthen them is by taking a walk in the open air, driving an omnibus or powdered acetone in a half pint water base. This creates a free circulation to the parts, helping to draw muscles and skin to contract. Naso-Vicks Vaporub, at 50 cents a tube, long known by complexion specialists for positive remarkable tonic and aromatic properties, valuable in treating flabby tissue and wrinkles. Adv.

SORENESS
In joints or muscles, give a brisk massage with—

VICK'S VAPORUB
YOUR BODYGUARD—30¢, 60¢, 80¢

BETTER SHOES FOR LESS

Johnson Bros

SHOE STORE

116 SOUTH MAIN STREET

Next Door North of Wonderland

Friday and Saturday

Specials

Women's Oxford and Pumps

IN LOUIS OR MILITARY HEELS, LEATHERS

BLACK KID, MAHOGANY KID, WHITE KID

AND PATENT

Priced Regularly up to $8.50

Friday and Saturday, $6.85

I'm for Spavinaw
C. O. BAKER

I'm for Spavinaw
PETE JOYCE

ANNOUNCEMENT

DANCING

EVERY WEDNESDAY AND SATURDAY NIGHT

AT

THE TEA CUP INN

Nine to Twelve

ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS PER COUPLE.

For Table Reservations Call 2247.

BEST DANCE ORCHESTRA OBTAINABLE

Starting Saturday Night, June 21.

Asked Man to Ride With Him; He Loses a Watch and Chain

Men's faith in humanity received another jolt in Tulsa Thursday, when a complaint charging grand larceny, was filed in the court of Justice H. J. Gray, accusing J. E. Galligan with stealing a watch from the pocket of the complainant, Ed Smith, a defendant in a case of grand larceny in Arizona, before his trial was held in the city jail awaiting transfer to the county authorities for arraignment on the charge.

Galligan, who is illegal held in the city jail after having been released of his preliminary hearing before the local United States commissioner on a charge of grand larceny, was indicted for a like offense in Arizona, before his trial was held in the city jail awaiting transfer to the county authorities for arraignment on the charge.

Galligan claims in his petition that he was arrested on a fugitive warrant issued by J. H. Wilkins, United States commissioner, and brought before him to answer the charge of grand larceny. He further says that the charges against him was dismissed, but that the defendant officers refuse to allow him to stand trial. Arguments on the petition will be heard by Judge J. Martin in superior court at 9 o'clock Friday morning.

TRIAL OF ALLEGED DYNAMITER IS PUT OFF

GRAY'S HABEAS CORPUS IS TAKEN UNDER ADVISEMENT

The habeas corpus proceedings of Paul Gray seeking bond for release pending trial on the charge of murder, began before Judge Edward G. Peew in this city October 21, 1917, counsel for both the state and defense.

Gray was committed to jail for trial to the court further in which he was granted

the right to stand trial and to be tried by a jury.

Gray was bound over for trial by the district court, accused of the murder of Paul Gleason in the LaSalle room, Archer and Main streets, on May 29, at a time when the defendant was proprietor of the rooming house. It was claimed in the trial that Justice Gray, in finding the defendant over without bond did not properly consider the testimony offered, which proved, according to the petitioner, that Gray was not guilty of murder, whatever other crime he may have committed, and that one murder is an unavoidable offense under the state law.

Gray was bound over for trial by the district court, accused of the murder of Paul Gleason in the LaSalle room, Archer and Main streets, on May 29, at a time when the defendant was proprietor of the rooming house. It was claimed in the trial that Justice Gray, in finding the defendant over without bond did not properly consider the testimony offered, which proved, according to the petitioner, that Gray was not guilty of murder, whatever other crime he may have committed, and that one murder is an unavoidable offense under the state law.

Gray was bound over for trial by the district court, accused of the murder of Paul Gleason in the LaSalle room, Archer and Main streets, on May 29, at a time when the defendant was proprietor of the rooming house. It was claimed in the trial that Justice Gray, in finding the defendant over without bond did not properly consider the testimony offered, which proved, according to the petitioner, that Gray was not guilty of murder, whatever other crime he may have committed, and that one murder is an unavoidable offense under the state law.

Gray was bound over for trial by the district court, accused of the murder of Paul Gleason in the LaSalle room, Archer and Main streets, on May 29, at a time when the defendant was proprietor of the rooming house. It was claimed in the trial that Justice Gray, in finding the defendant over without bond did not properly consider the testimony offered, which proved, according to the petitioner, that Gray was not guilty of murder, whatever other crime he may have committed, and that one murder is an unavoidable offense under the state law.

Gray was bound over for trial by the district court, accused of the murder of Paul Gleason in the LaSalle room, Archer and Main streets, on May 29, at a time when the defendant was proprietor of the rooming house. It was claimed in the trial that Justice Gray, in finding the defendant over without bond did not properly consider the testimony offered, which proved, according to the petitioner, that Gray was not guilty of murder, whatever other crime he may have committed, and that one murder is an unavoidable offense under the state law.

Gray was bound over for trial by the district court, accused of the murder of Paul Gleason in the LaSalle room, Archer and Main streets, on May 29, at a time when the defendant was proprietor of the rooming house. It was claimed in the trial that Justice Gray, in finding the defendant over without bond did not properly consider the testimony offered, which proved, according to the petitioner, that Gray was not guilty of murder, whatever other crime he may have committed, and that one murder is an unavoidable offense under the state law.

Gray was bound over for trial by the district court, accused of the murder of Paul Gleason in the LaSalle room, Archer and Main streets, on May 29, at a time when the defendant was proprietor of the rooming house. It was claimed in the trial that Justice Gray, in finding the defendant over without bond did not properly consider the testimony offered, which proved, according to the petitioner, that Gray was not guilty of murder, whatever other crime he may have committed, and that one murder is an unavoidable offense under the state law.

Gray was bound over for trial by the district court, accused of the murder of Paul Gleason in the LaSalle room, Archer and Main streets, on May 29, at a time when the defendant was proprietor of the rooming house. It was claimed in the trial that Justice Gray, in finding the defendant over without bond did not properly consider the testimony offered, which proved, according to the petitioner, that Gray was not guilty of murder, whatever other crime he may have committed, and that one murder is an unavoidable offense under the state law.

Gray was bound over for trial by the district court, accused of the murder of Paul Gleason in the LaSalle room, Archer and Main streets, on May 29, at a time when the defendant was proprietor of the rooming house. It was claimed in the trial that Justice Gray, in finding the defendant over without bond did not properly consider the testimony offered, which proved, according to the petitioner, that Gray was not guilty of murder, whatever other crime he may have committed, and that one murder is an unavoidable offense under the state law.

Gray was bound over for trial by the district court, accused of the murder of Paul Gleason in the LaSalle room, Archer and Main streets, on May 29, at a time when the defendant was proprietor of the rooming house. It was claimed in the trial that Justice Gray, in finding the